

THE BLEAN

Woodland Festival 2013

FREE CONFERENCE

10.30 -11.00	Alexander Wheaten Author of Blean the Woodlands of the Cathedral City
11.00 - 11.30	Nicola Bannister Woodland archaeologist South Blean Woodland Landscape and History Project
11.30 -12.00	Emilie Mitchell Blean Project Manager, Kent Wildlife Trust The Blean Project: five years of intensive conservation work.
12.00 -12.30	Michael Walter Royal Society for the Protection of Birds Birds of the Blean
12.30 - 13.00	Neil Morris Local naturalist and historian The ancient and veteran trees of South Blean
13.00 - 13.30	Mike Enfield Kent Wildlife Trust What the Blean Project has done for Butterflies and Moths
13.30 -14.00	Peter Vujakovic Head of Geographical and Life Sciences - Canterbury Christ Church University Kent's Phoenix trees: the survivors of the Great Storm
14.00 - 14.30	Cathy Myles, Brian Caffarey and Andy Brown Kent Wildlife Trust Our experience as volunteers.
14.30 -15.00	David Carey Kent Tree Warden Our trees under threat, new pests and diseases
15.00 - 15.30	Kathryn Barton Community Engagement Officer, Kent Wildlife Trust Five years of people engagement in the Blean.
15.30 - 16.00	John Puckett Kent Bat Group Bats of the Blean

For more information, please contact:

By Post: Blean Project Office, Mayton Oast, Mayton Lane, Broad Oak, Canterbury, CT2 0QW

By Phone: 01227 719 506

By email: info@kentwildlife.org.uk

